Trial membership for start-ups

Start-ups demonstrably established within the past 24 months shall receive free membership in EEHH e.V. for the first (partial) year and the second (full) year. In the subsequent year the company shall be assigned to the lowest category of membership fees, except for start-ups which are more than 50% owned by a company with more than 250 employees.

Supplementary provisions on the membership contribution in the association's articles of association:

- Membership contributions are due for payment at the beginning of the year – members receive an invoice for them.
- The specified membership contributions are minimum contributions – members may also pay a higher membership contribution on a voluntary basis.
- In the year when they join the association, the membership contribution must be promptly paid in the full amount.
- The classification of the membership contribution is based on the member's own information.

Any adjustment of these Contribution Regulations shall be promptly announced by the Executive Board and voted on in the Members' Meeting.
